FINNIGAN'S BALL.

The author of "Finnigan's Ball" has given an amusing, well told story that Murray & Mack's excellent company have succeeded in elaborating into an enjoyable entertainment, meritorious from the fact that it not only has all the elements of music and fun, but its story is coherent and full of well sustained interest. The three acts of the "Ball" have been happily seasoned with new medleys, songs, dances and clever specialty features, all of which are introduced in a perfectly legitimate manner, and the presentation gives a bright, crisp, hilarious farce with the refreshing novelty of a plot, something decidedly new in the comedy field, and a feature that has proven one of the strongest factors in the phenomenal success of the past three seasons. Washington Opera-house, Saturday, October 20th.

It Heals the Lungs.

When suffering from a racking cough, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick fellows that count—and cut.

The name of the kicker must accompany the kick, or it'll be kicked into the waste-basket.

Editor Public Ledger: The writer desires to enter a vigorous protest against the way the streets of Maysville are being repaired at present. The cracked rock is put down without any dirt or filling of any kind to make them pack, and when a vehicle is driven over them they shift about until they are almost worn out and have been sufficiently pulverized to form a filling, and the metal wears out in half the time it would if a little dirt were put on.

Why not get the best we can for our money? It will not cost any more to put on a little filling, then the rock will pack in a short time and become smooth, and any one driving over them will not be jolted to pieces.

It is hard on horses and hard on vehicles and hard on the taxpayers' pockets, but it is good for blacksmiths and wagon-makers.

The Second Street Fill for the greater part of the past two months has been as rough as the bed of a creek, the rock being dumped on there and allowed to remain for weeks before it was broken up.

TO BE DEPENDED ON.

Because it is the Experience of a Maysville Citizen and Can Readily be Investigated.

A stranger in a large city would place far more dependence on the directions given him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence of experience; it's like a ship in a strange port—a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with indorsement; we doubt the saying of people living at distant points because we can't investigate, but public expression of local citizens can be depended on, for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute.

Mrs. R. R. Housh of 394 Forest ave., says:—"Doan's Kidney Pills quickly relieved Mr. Housh of backache which had been a source of discomfort to him for some time. I procured the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and its proven value is so great that it should be known throughout the world."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. POSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

CAN'T CHANGE THESE FIGURES.

On the 7th of November, 1899, an election for Governor was held in this state; the vote being—

Taylor, Republican 193,714
Goebel, Democrat 191,331
Taylor's majority over Goebel . . . 2,383

It was because of these figures that two out of three of Mr. Goebel's own Election Commissioners, Judge W. S. Pryor and Captain William Ellis, issued a certificate of election to Mr. W. S. Taylor; and it was because of that certificate that Democratic Chief Justice Hazeltine administered to Mr. Taylor the oath of office and he entered upon his duties as Governor.

NO COURT DECISION CAN CHANGE EITHER THESE FIGURES OR THESE FACTS.

In addition, there were other votes cast against Goebel at the election on November 7th, 1899, as follows:

Brown, Independent Democrat . . . 12,140
Blair, Populist 3,038
Total 15,178
Add Taylor's vote 193,714

Total against Goebel 208,892
Goebel's total vote 191,331

Total majority against Goebel . . 17,561

NOR CAN ANY COURT DECISION CHANGE EITHER THESE FIGURES OR THESE FACTS.

Charles W. Shotwell and Miss Emma Kabler, both of this city, were married Saturday.

A "stitch in time saves nine," and a dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup at the beginning of a cold will save you many weary hours and even days of distressing and harassing cough. Price, 25 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mr. John Rhodes of the Murphysville neighborhood remembered THE LEDGER while in the city yesterday.

Don't be deceived or humbugged by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder trouble. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that such claims are fraudulent. Foley's Kidney Cure simply contains remedies that are recognized by the most skillful physicians as the best for these complaints, so don't be credulous or foolish. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.

Fresh Oysters at John O'Keefe's.

The editor of the Fordville, Ky. Miscellaneous, writes as a postscript to a business letter: "I was cured of kidney trouble by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co."

Messrs. Ben Gill and James Smithers of the Lewisburg neighborhood, while driving on the Lexington pike Sunday afternoon, were thrown from their buggy by the horse becoming frightened and making a sudden turn. Mr. Gill was seriously injured, the bones of the left leg receiving a compound fracture. Mr. Smithers' left leg was also injured.

We have seen the frail infant when the faint struggle for existence seemed almost ended, resuscitated and made strong by the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Price, 25 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Ladies' Day

Wednesday,

October 17th, 1900.

In order to assist in making LADIES' DAY (October 17) a success, and incidentally attracting attention to our advertising, we have decided to inaugurate a novel and interesting contest for the occasion, in which none but Ladies will be allowed to compete. We offer three prizes, which will be awarded as follows:

TO THE LADY FURNISHING THE MOST COMPLETE COLLECTION OF OUR DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENTS, TAKEN FROM BOTH THE LEDGER AND BULLETIN, WILL BE PRESENTED

FIRST—A Handsome Set of Ladies' Embroidery Shears.

Consisting of four pairs, ranging in size from three to six inches, contained in a neat Morocco leather case, price.....$3 00

SECOND—A Genuine Stag Carving Set.

Not a cheap affair, but made of the very best steel by Jos. Elliott, of Sheffield, England, and which sells at retail for.....$1 75

THIRD—A Set of Nut Cracks and Picks,

Composed of seven pieces, in a pretty silk-lined case, the money value of which is.....$1 00

Should there be a tie in the best collection, the first handed in will be regarded as the winner of prize No. 1, and so on.

CONDITIONS—Each batch of advertisements must be inclosed in a sealed envelope bearing the name and address of the contestant and handed in at our store in person. No collection will be considered without the advertisement taken from both The Ledger and Bulletin of the 16th inst. Families of the newspaper fraternity barred. Since the contest is arranged in honor of LADIES' DAY, offerings will be accepted on that date only, and but one prize will be awarded to a family.

LADIES, both old and young, anywhere, are invited to compete. A very little search may result in winning one of the prizes. Even if you don't capture first, you stand a good chance of gaining one of the others. Begin the collection of the ads. among your friends now. You have a week, and much may be accomplished in that time.

GOEBEL ON THE STAND.

Brother of the Murdered Man Testifies Against Henry Youtsey—Prisoner Lying on a Sick Bed.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 16.—The Youtsey trial was resumed Monday although Youtsey was reported in the same condition as last week. His room door was opened and his bed pulled up in plain view and hearing of the jury, and while the witnesses were being examined Youtsey could be heard calling his wife's name in a hollow, moaning voice and could be seen tossing on his bed. Of course the feature of the day was the testimony of Arthur Goebel, the brother of the murdered man. He told of going to the jail the day Youtsey was arrested and then said: "I put my hand on Mr. Youtsey's right shoulder and said, 'Mr. Youtsey, Col. Campbell has just returned and told me what you have said to him and I have come over to have you tell me what you have told him, to tell me whether it is true, and to ask you a few other questions.'"

"Mr. Youtsey said: 'Yes, Mr. Goebel, what I have told Col. Campbell is true.'"

"I then said to Youtsey: 'Now I would like to have you tell me about getting the key on Monday morning from Powers and about Dick Combs, and about going to see Taylor, and also about going to see Taylor on Tuesday morning and where you got the cartridges.'"

"Youtsey proceeded and said: 'Just as I told Col. Campbell, I had a talk with Dick Combs on Monday morning and he told me that he was ready to do the shooting and I went to Caleb Powers for the key to his office and he told me to go to John Powers. I went to John Powers and John Powers gave me the key. I went to Gov. Taylor and I told Gov. Taylor that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. Gov. Taylor said: 'You ought not to come to see me about this. I have been expecting this to be done for some time, but I object to having a Negro do it. It is too important a piece of work. Combs may be a spy and he may betray us.' Mr. Youtsey said: 'I went back to see Gov. Taylor on Tuesday morning and I said to him: 'The man to do the shooting is now here.' Well, I told him Jim Howard was here, that I thought he got there Monday night. Gov. Taylor walked up and down the floor and said: 'Youtsey, what do you think? If Goebel was killed, do you think I could hold my office?' and discussed that matter, talking to me back and forth and I said to him I thought if Goebel was put out of the way that the contest would be settled and that he could hold his office. Finally I said to him, as Gov. Taylor hesitated still: 'It is up to you to decide now finally whether it is to be done or not,' and after some more hesitating Youtsey said Taylor said finally: 'Well, tell them to go ahead. If it is necessary I can send the man to the mountains with a squad of soldiers.'"

"Youtsey then stopped and I said: 'What did you do then? You have told Col. Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.' He said: 'Yes, I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges. I gave them to Jim Howard; he was the last man who went in the door. I gave him the whole box.' I said: 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said: 'I can not tell you; I didn't see him.' I said: 'What did you do when you let him in?' He said: 'I stayed near the door.' I said: 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir,' I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Marlin.'"

LOUISVILLE HORSE SHOW.

The First Indoor One Ever Held in Kentucky—It Will Continue for Five Evenings.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—The first indoor horse show ever held in Kentucky began auspiciously Monday night in the building that was erected for the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans last spring, but which has since been remodeled. The show is given by the Louisville Horse Show association, and will continue five evenings. The society folk of Louisville and other southern cities filled the boxes, and the first night was no less a success from the horsemen's point of view. Gen. Nelson A. Miles will arrive Wednesday to judge the horses in the cavalry parade.

Ex-Lieut. Gov. Porter Dead.
